

Definition. Angles opposite one another at the intersection of two lines are called vertical angles. In our picture vertical angles are $\angle 1$ and $\angle 3$, $\angle 2$ and $\angle 4$.

Vertical angles are equal.
 $\angle 1 = 180^\circ - \angle 2 = \angle 3$